

Jennifer has been with Good Shepherd Communities for a total of 16 years working in various leadership roles. She began her career at Good Shepherd Fairview Home as Director of Social Services. Then as the Director of Admissions, she had oversight of both Good Shepherd Fairview Home and Good Shepherd Village at Endwell. She also was the Administrator of Assisted Living at Good Shepherd Fairview Home. She began her work in long term care 27 years ago as a CNA while she was in college. Her first professional role was as a social worker in a nursing home. In addition to her Bachelor's degree and an additional course in Health Care Administration, Jennifer also holds CASP (Certified Aging Services Professional) certification and is a licensed Nursing Home Administrator. The CASP certification is a national program offered by the Coalition for Leadership in Aging at the University of North Texas in partnership with Leading Age New York. Jennifer is currently the Health Care Administrator at Good Shepherd Village at Endwell where she oversees the day to day operations of the Assisted Living Facility and the Skilled Nursing Facility as the Administrator of Record.